

French dance of the 17th and 18th centuries
Workshop for Musicians
by
ANA YEPES

Saturday 26th and Sunday 27th of April 2014
Types of dances for the Suite

Schedule 5 hours
Saturday 6pm-8pm
Sunday 3,30pm-6,30pm

Cost € 55,00

Ana Yepes, dancer, choreographer and musician, teaches Baroque Dance according to the french sources of xvii e xviii centuries
by Pierre Rameau, Raoul-Auger Feuillet.
Her work on technique and interpretation, as well as the warm-up she proposes are also essential elements of her teaching.

This workshop is an introduction to the Baroque Dance style, both practical and theoretical. We will learn the basic steps and their combinations for different dances.
We will practice them in the different types of dances for the Suite: Courante, Sarabande, Bourrée, Menuet, Gigue....

Studio Location
Artespettacolo - Largo Lido Duranti, 1 angolo via Romolo Gigliozzi, 12 - zona Tor De' Cenci (E.U.R.) - Roma

The number of students will be limited, admission will be on a first-come first serve basis.

The inscription sheets should be sent completed to: ana.yepes@icloud.com

before March 15th 2014

www.anayepes.com